The Shetland Open is changing...

The Open is changing... it will now take place as a biennial (every two years), with an exhibition by the prize winners in each intervening year. Each biennial will adopt a different theme. This year you are invited to take part in...

THE SHETLAND OPEN PORTRAIT AWARDS 2010

- 5 sponsored prizes of £100 each will be awarded, one in each of the following categories: Print, Painting and Drawing, Photography and New Media, Craft and First-time Exhibitor (sponsors to be confirmed). Each prize will be matched by a further £100 from Shetland Arts to fund a group exhibition at Bonhoga Gallery in September 2011.
- Artwork should reflect the theme of portraiture either conventionally or unconventionally.
- A non-selected exhibition where all work, unless offensive or inappropriate to the theme, will be hung. Work should not have previously been exhibited in Shetland.
- All wall-based work, except for hangings/sculpture, must be framed, in a frame with a moulding greater than 10mm; clip frames are not acceptable.
- The size of work is limited to 1x1 metre including frame. Craft is defined as creative work conceived, designed and made by an individual. Size is restricted to 1 metre for the longest edge of 3D items in craft or sculpture. Clothing or items made from craft kits are not acceptable.
- Work must be for sale - gallery commission 35% plus VAT @ 17.5% for those resident in Shetland, 50% plus VAT @ 17.5% for those resident elsewhere.
- All work must be clearly labelled with artist's name, title, medium and the price you wish to receive for your work, the gallery will add commission and VAT.
- Unsold work to be collected within 14 days from 11 October from Shetland Arts Offices, Toll Clock, or by arrangement.
