T2: Trainspotting (Cert TBC)

First there was an opportunity... then there was a betrayal. Twenty years have gone by. Much has changed but just as much remains the same. Mark Renton returns to the only place he can ever call home, and they are waiting for him: Spud, Sick Boy, and Begbie. Other old friends are waiting too: sorrow, loss, joy, vengeance, hatred, friendship, love, longing, fear, regret, diamorphine, self-destruction, and mortal danger...

Eat That Question: Frank Zappa In His Own Words (15)

Frank Zappa – self-taught composer, musician, bandleader, producer and independent thinker – first transcribed his avant-garde compositions onto paper at fourteen. He began to write lyrics in his early twenties. And upon the 1966 release of his debut album, Freak Out! (with the Mothers of Invention), he swiftly became the most quotable voice of dissent in popular music. A subtle, skillful montage constructed solely from historic footage, Eat That Question is an energetic celebration of this outspoken maestro.

Sully (12A)

Tom Hanks stars as a modern American hero in this riveting true life drama. On 15 January 2009, Captain Chesley 'Sully' Sullenberger became a national hero when the world witnessed him pilot his disabled plane onto the waters of the Hudson River, saving the lives of all 155 aboard. However, even as Sully was being championed for his bravery and skill, an investigation was unfolding that threatened to destroy both his reputation and his career.

Hacksaw Ridge (12A)

Mel Gibson’s first film as director since 2006, Hacksaw Ridge is a gripping and moving drama based on the story of Desmond Doss, who, in Okinawa during the bloodiest battle of WWII, single-handedly evacuated casualties from behind enemy lines, saving 75 men without firing or carrying a gun. Doss was the first conscientious objector to earn the Congressional Medal of Honor.

---

No Man’s Land

SUNDAY 5 FEBRUARY
Mareel £12 / £10

Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End in Harold Pinter’s No Man’s Land, filmed live for cinemas.
Fifty Shades Darker (Cert TBC)

Daunted by his singular tastes and dark secrets, Anastasia has broken off her relationship with handsome, troubled entrepreneur Christian Grey to pursue a new career in a Seattle publishing house. But her desire for Christian still dominates her every waking thought, and when he proposes a new arrangement, Anastasia cannot resist. They rekindle their searing sexual affair, and Anastasia must confront the anger and envy of the women who came before her.

Romeo + Juliet (12A)

Director Baz Luhrmann transfers Verona, Italy to Verona Beach, Florida, in this iconoclastic, sexy rendering of the bard’s classic tale of love and tragedy. Here the Montagues and Capulets act like modern gangs with vendettas and blood feuds, and the swords have become guns, but the language remains the same and the tragedy of the star-crossed lovers Juliet (Claire Danes) and Romeo (Leonardo DiCaprio) is as poignant as ever.

NO MAN’S LAND

BY HAROLD PINTER

SUNDAY 5 FEBRUARY - Mareel €12/£10

Following their hit run on Broadway, Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End stage in Harold Pinter’s No Man’s Land, filmed live for cinemas at Wyndham’s Theatre, London.

One summer’s evening, two ageing writers, Hirst and Spooner, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst’s house nearby. As the pair become increasingly inebriated, and their stories increasingly unbelievable, the lively conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the appearance of two sinister younger men. Also starring Owen Teale and Damien Molony, don’t miss this glorious revival of Pinter’s comic classic.

Special guest Peter White as Kenny Rogers
Split (15)

Three schoolgirls are kidnapped and locked in a windowless room by a stalker named Kevin. The captor’s appointments with his psychiatrist reveal that he has dissociative identity disorder – what used to be called multiple personality disorder – and is hosting 23 distinct personalities, from a mischievous nine-year-old boy to a flamboyant fashion designer. But there’s also a 24th personality, ominously referred to as The Beast, battling to gain control...

The Great Wall (12A)

When a mercenary warrior is imprisoned within the Great Wall of China, he discovers the mystery behind one of the greatest wonders of the world. As wave after wave of marauding creatures besiege the massive structure, his quest for fortune turns into a journey toward heroism, as he joins a huge army of elite warriors to confront the seemingly unstoppable force.

Event Cinema

Bolshoi Ballet: Swan Lake (TBC)

SUNDAY 19 FEBRUARY

Mareel £12 / £10

Filmed live at the Bolshoi in Moscow, this sublimely beautiful ballet, with a score by Tchaikovsky and choreography by Yuri Grigorovich, features prima ballerina Svetlana Zakharova, in her acclaimed interpretation of the dual-swan role Odette/Odile, alongside Denis Rodkin as a powerful and emotional Siegfried.

By moonlight on the shore of a mysterious lake, Prince Siegfried meets the bewitched swan-woman Odette. Completely spellbound by her beauty, he swears his love to her. However, the Prince realises too late that Fate has another plan for him...

AMYTHYST KIAH +SUPPORT

WEDNESDAY 8 FEBRUARY, 7:30pm

Mareel £16

Amythyst Kiah is a Southern Gothic, alt-country, singer / songwriter based out of Johnson City, Tennessee - where she has been hailed as a powerhouse vocalist.

Not only are her influences eclectic but they span the decades, drawing heavily on ‘old-time’ music and blues, but equally country music from the 50’s to the 70’s as well.

Kiah has opened for the likes of Tim O’ Brien in the States and is now making significant impact across the USA at major venues, events and festivals such as the Smithsonian Folklife Festival, plus likewise in the UK via events such as the Cambridge Folk Festival, Southern Fried Festival and the SummerTyne Americana Festival.

She first appeared in Shetland two years ago, making a huge impression on her audience at that time. Expect her to do likewise on this occasion too!!

"Amythyst Kiah is going to be famous..she will remind you what it is to love live music." – 'No Depression.'

Sarah Jarosz (trio show)

SUNDAY 29 JANUARY, 7:30pm

Mareel £22

GRAMMY-nominated and highly gifted singer and multi-instrumentalist Sarah Jarosz, from Austin, Texas, will bring her trio show to Shetland early in 2017. Signed to a record deal aged just 16, she has built up a major reputation in the contemporary folk, Americana and roots scene. In addition to playing mandolin, octave mandolin, guitar and banjo, Jarosz is an expressive and distinctive vocalist and a hugely accomplished songwriter. She is a regular on A Prairie Home Companion TV show, where she is part of the new house band alongside host Chris Thile and other members of the Punch Brothers.

This year she has shared a stage with the likes of Paul Simon and Jack White. Jarosz boasts multiple Grammy nominations including two for her last album Build Me Up From Bones, while her current release Undercurrent is her first since graduating with honours from the New England Conservatory of Music. It features cameos and co-writes with collaborators including Crooked Still’s Aoife O’Donovan and Nickel Creek’s Sara Watkins, with whom she has toured under the name ‘I’m With Her’.
NEIL GEORGESON Piano Recital:
Pictures at an Exhibition: Island Life
THURSDAY 9 FEBRUARY 7:30pm

Shetland-born London-based pianist Neil Georgeson returns for his final concert of three this season, with an audacious programme inspired by images and scenes of country life. This exciting event will combine classics of the traditional piano repertoire with forgotten rare finds and new works, and will use projected images in unexpected ways.

Including:
• Mussorgsky’s Pictures at an Exhibition
• UK Premier of Øyvind Torvund’s Abstraction in Folk Art
• Collaboration with video artist Alicja Rogalska
• PLUS visually inspired pastoral works by Liszt, Couperin, Crumb & Debussy.

ScreenPlay 2017

25 AUGUST - 3 SEPTEMBER

Shetland’s annual film festival curated by Linda Ruth Williams & Mark Kermode.
Amidst a vast, cascading expanse of ocean, a tiny boat is tossed through rolling waves and thundering storms. Steadily rowing forward into nothingness is a fisherman. Sailing to nowhere, he looks out as the darkness looms and prepares himself to leap...

But before he can jump out, something else jumps in. Fisk is a story of a man and a fish, and the unexpected impact they have upon one another.

Multi-award winning Tortoise in a Nutshell weave puppetry, movement and intricate design to create world class visual theatre. Examining themes of depression, support and interconnection, Fisk will draw audiences into an atmospheric and immersive world, on a journey which will find joy in even the deepest and darkest of depths.

Suitable for all ages but recommended for those 12 and above.

Sing (U)

Set in a world like ours but entirely inhabited by animals, this delightful family animation revolves around dapper koala Buster Moon and his beloved, once-grand theatre, which has fallen on hard times. Buster’s last chance to restore his pride and joy is by holding the world’s greatest singing competition. One by one a whole host of animals arrive to take their shot at fame.

Lego Batman Movie (U)

Batman is the toast of Gotham City, but each night he returns to the Batcave alone. His faithful manservant Alfred suggests that the crime-fighter’s greatest fear is of being part of a family once more, and that the solution is to raise the orphan he adopted, training him to become his superhero sidekick. But the over-excited boy wonder proves quite a handful, and Batman’s greatest foe is about to rear his cackling head.

Toy Story 3D (PG)

A special 3D screening of this family favourite.

Woody, a traditional pull-string talking cowboy, has long enjoyed a place of honour as the favourite among six-year-old Andy’s menagerie of toys. But Woody finds his status as top toy in jeopardy upon the arrival of Buzz Lightyear, simply the coolest space action figure ever made.

Rogue One: A Star Wars Story (12A)

It is a period of civil war. The Galactic Empire rules the galaxy, and is putting the finishing touches to their ultimate super-weapon, the Death Star. The Rebellion plan to steal the plans, and recruit Jyn Erso (Felicity Jones) to undertake the deadly mission alongside Rebel fighter Cassian Andor (Diego Luna).
PHILL JUPITUS: JUPILICITY
SATURDAY 22 JULY, 8pm
Mareel £16

Join stand-up comedian and TV stalwart Phill Jupitus for a show of tales, laughs and diversions. Watch as this experienced funny-man creates laughs out of the chaos of his own life and the uncertain world that surrounds it.

Phill became a familiar face as team captain on BBC2’s pop quiz Never Mind The Buzzcocks in 1996, which went on to run for 19 years.

Aside from that and live stand up shows all over the UK, he also appears as a regular guest on QI (BBC2), and in 2012 returned to television stand-up comedy with an appearance on Live at the Apollo (BBC1), while over on BBC Radio 4 Phill is a regular panellist on the award winning show I’m Sorry I Haven’t a Clue.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS, 7 - 9pm
Mareel £10

Shetland Arts’ popular Life Drawing sessions are back on 15 February!

The set-up is very informal, with artists encouraged to bring their own materials and the poses led by the model. Sessions, costing £10 per week, take place in the Green Room at Mareel on Wednesday evenings between 7 and 9pm, from 15 February to 22 March (not 15 March).

Book in person at Mareel, over the phone on 01595 745500 or online at www.shetlandarts.org.

This class is suitable for over 16s of all abilities. Please bring your own drawing materials & paper. Booking in advance is recommended.
Jackie (15)

The assassination of John F Kennedy in 1963 was one of those moments that defined a generation. That this handsome, charismatic leader with a beautiful wife and two young children could have his life ended so brutally defied comprehension. With Jackie, Pablo Larraín makes a brave choice by retelling this story solely through the eyes of Jacqueline Kennedy, casting Natalie Portman in a lead performance that is deeply intelligent and carefully measured.

Manchester by the Sea (15)

Rude, withdrawn and temperamental, Boston handyman Lee Chandler is clearly a troubled man. When he receives news of the sudden death of his beloved brother, Lee sets off for his Massachusetts home town of Manchester-by-the-Sea. Here he learns that he has become guardian of his 16-year-old nephew, and is forced to confront his troubled past and the tragic events that forced him to leave.

Hidden Figures (PG)

Hidden Figures is the incredible untold story of three brilliant African-American women working at NASA in the early 1960s, who served as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in history: the launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit. Their stunning achievement restored the nation’s confidence, turned around the Space Race, and crossed gender and race lines to inspire generations to dream big.

20th Century Women (15)

During the summer of 1979, a Santa Barbara single mother and boarding house landlady decides the best way she can parent her teenage son is to enlist her young tenants – a quirky punk photographer, a mellow handyman and her son’s shrewd best friend – to serve as role models in a changing world. Annette Bening leads a stellar cast in this beautifully observed charmer.

STUDENT MUSIC NIGHT

WEDNESDAY 22 MARCH from 7pm

Shetland College students studying music at Mareel showcase their live performance skills at an informal event. There will be a wide range of styles on offer reflecting the diverse influences of the multi-talented students.

Description: FREE
The Birth of a Nation (15)

Set against the antebellum South, this powerful drama follows Nat Turner, a literate slave and preacher, whose financially strained owner accepts an offer to use Nat’s preaching to subdue unruly slaves. As he witnesses countless atrocities – against himself and his fellow slaves – Nat orchestrates an uprising in the hope of leading his people to freedom.

Paterson (15)

Every day is much the same for bus driver and secret poet Paterson. Once his shift has finished, he goes home and has dinner with his wife Laura, before taking their dog down to the local bar and enjoying one beer. Jim Jarmusch’s charming and quietly profound character study astutely observes the triumphs and defeats of daily life, along with the poetry evident in its smallest details.

My Feral Heart (12A)

Luke, an independent young man with Down’s syndrome, is grieving the loss of his elderly mother when he is forced to move into a care home. Initially despondent about his new situation, his spirits are raised when he finds a way to sneak out and explore the local countryside. And when he meets a girl in need of his help, his desire to connect and protect another person gives him a new lease of life.

Toni Erdmann (15)

At last year’s Cannes Film Festival, Toni Erdmann took everyone by surprise and became the unexpected hit of the festival, with sold out screenings and queues around the block. The story follows an ambitious young businesswoman and her relationship with her eccentric, practical joke loving father. Saying much more would be a spoiler: it’s full of surprises, very warm and touching and frequently hilarious.

Christine (15)

Christine, always the smartest person in the room at her local Florida news station, feels like she is destined for bigger things, but is constantly butting heads with her boss, who pushes for juicier stories that will drive up ratings. As Christine’s mental state declines, and she is increasingly plagued by self-doubt and feelings of unrequited love for a colleague, events take a dark and shocking turn.
